December 1 Child Count Data Snapshot - Feb. 21st

Are you prepared for the next to last December 1 Child Count Data Snapshot on Friday, February 21st? It is imperative that you review the following reports prior to the FINAL December 1 Child Count Data pickup on Wednesday, February 26th:

Report Type: Student ▼	Report Categories: Approvals ▼

t Report	Description	Report Des
○	Alphabetic List of Student Approvals	Select a report to see description
○	Approvals by Serving School
○	Approvals NOT on Child Count
○	Approvals Not Reported
○	Approvals Reported
○	Approvals Reported for Child Count
○	Child Count Snapshot by Resident District

To ensure the accuracy of the December 1 Child Count data, ISBE will make all Student Approval records 'Read Only' while they process the December 1 Child Count. No edits will be allowed during the 'lock out' period.

December 1 Child Count Verification Begins March 12th

Have you reviewed the 'Child Count Snapshot by Resident District' report with your district superintendent? If not, this should be done prior to Wednesday, February 26th. Once the December 1 Child Count is taken on February 26th, no changes can be made to the Student Approval data.

The Special Education Child Count Certification will begin in I-Star on Thursday, March 12th. The district superintendent or authorized district representative (with admin access in IWAS) from each district will be responsible for completing this final step of the December 1 Child Count.
